New Dances Choreographer Application FAQ

Q: What is the residency requirement for New Dances?

A: DanceWorks Chicago and Thodos Dance Chicago are Chicago-born and Chicago-proud organizations. New Dances is designed to #SupportLocal. Choreographers must be current residents of Chicago or live within 60 miles of the city limits and be eligible to work in the US.

Q: Is there an age requirement for New Dances?

A: Yes, choreographers must be at least 18 years old by March 1, 2023.

Q: What if I have a schedule conflict with a New Dances activity? Can New Dances choreographers miss any of the commitments listed in the application form?

A: Given the condensed time frame for this project, it is imperative that every participant attend all dates/times as listed in the application form. Only choreographers able to commit 100% should apply to New Dances.

Q: I missed the application cut off date/time. Is there any flexibility to apply after the deadline?

A: Out of fairness to all applicants, once the application portal is closed, no additional submissions will be accepted. Please note: if your application is incomplete at the time of the deadline, your submission will not be considered.

Q: Are you looking for specific dance styles/genres?

A: New Dances is committed to lifting up a diverse group of choreographers that work in a variety of different dance styles/genres. There isn't any one particular style we look for in our choreographers.

Q: How are dancers selected for each piece?

A: The New Dances choreographers conduct the dancer audition and go through a group casting process to determine their cast.

Q: Is proof of Covid-19 vaccination required for New Dances?

A: New Dances 2023 is dedicated to creating a safe space for artists and audiences, and in that spirit, proof of vaccination is part of the application process.
