DANCEMAKERS

Kelsi Fears

Paula Sousa

Dance360 offers a holistic approach to dance training and artistic development. Movers and makers need a diverse set of tools to be successful in the studio, on stage, and in life. Dance360 offerings help artists identify, develop, and utilize these tools on their journey through dance.

ChoreoLab provides a one-week residency for dancemakers to create on dancers who are hand-picked to contribute to the creative process. Days started with morning technique class followed by rehearsal, coaching, and sharing. Thank you for joining us to see and support new work and courageous artists!

A special note from Sara:

This ChoreoLab showcase is the final event of Dance360 Programming, as after 18+ years of exceptional service to the community, DanceWorks Chicago is sunsetting operations this calendar year.

I am honored to have served this community and proud of the impact Dance360 has had. We have planted seeds together, built scaffolding, and discovered pockets of light. It is my wish that the holistic culture of Dance360 continues in all the paths forged.

Keep opening doors. Keep nurturing yourself. And let's make a difference in this world.
